Development Permit Application Package Residential

Under Provincial Law (Municipal Government Act, Revised Statutes of Alberta 2000, M-26) all developments in the Province of Alberta require a development permit. The Act defines development as:

- a building or an addition to, or replacement or repair of, a building and the construction or placing of any of them on, in, over or under land.
- a change of use of land or a building, or an act done in relation to land or a building that results in or is likely to result in a change in the use of the land or building.
- a change in the intensity of use of land or a building, or an act done in relation to land or a building that results in or is likely to result in a change in the intensity of use of the land or building.
- an excavation or stockpile and the creation of either of them.

Town of Fox Creek, the Land Use Bylaw 824-2019 states that development permits are required for:

- All new buildings, houses, garages, garden sheds, accessory buildings, etc., that have a footprint larger than 14.0 m² (151 square feet).
- Small buildings or sheds that measure less than 14.0 m² (151 square feet) in floor area but which are placed on a permanent foundation.
- Structural additions or alterations to existing buildings. These include basement developments, skylights and sunrooms. A permit is not required for painting, decorating, new siding, shingles, etc.
- Change of use or intensity of use of an existing building (such as a new business replacing an existing business in a commercial building).
- Operating a home-based business.
- Fences that are higher than 1.0 m (3 ft., 3 in) in front yards or fences that are higher than 2.0 m (6 ft, 6 in) in side yards and backyards.
- Decks that are larger than 15.0 m² (162 square feet) in area or any smaller deck which does not meet the side or rear property line setbacks.
- Landscaping which will alter land surface grades and/or storm water flow direction.
- Demolition of a building (unless a development permit has been issued for a building replacement on the same footprint).
- Hard surfacing of any area greater than 7.5 m² (24.6 square feet) in size.
- Permanently installed private swimming pools and hot tubs.
- Failure to fully complete the application form and supply the required information, plans and fee may cause delays in processing your application.
- The Development Officer may refuse any application that is deemed incomplete.
- A Surveyor's Certificate may be required relating to the site or building which is the subject of the application.
- Construction undertaken following the approval of this development permit application may be regulated by the Alberta Building Code.
- Any actions taken by the applicant prior to the issuance of a development permit is issued is at his/her own risk.

PLEASE ENSURE THAT YOU HAVE TICKED OFF ALL THE BOXES ON THE FOLLOWING PAGE BEFORE SUBMITTING YOUR APPLICATION TO PREVENT DELAYS IN PROCESSING YOUR APPLICATION.

Site Plan - Instructions

In addition to the completed development permit application form, a clear and concise site plan at a scale and level of detail satisfactory to the Development Officer must be submitted.

Site plans for Residential developments must include:

- the size and shape of the lot.
- a north arrow.
- the legal description of property.
- the civic address of the property.
- lot lines (with dimensions).
- proposed front, side and rear yard setbacks.
- location of existing principal building and other structures including accessory buildings, garages, carports, parking spaces, fences, driveways and paved areas.

On a vacant parcel in a residential district, the site plan must show the proposed location of the principal building, and driveway/parking areas.

Site plans for Commercial or Industrial developments must also include:

- the site plan drawn to scale.
- the location of existing and proposed municipal and private local improvements.
- the location of all registered utility easements and rights-of-way.
- access to the site.
- location of off-street loading and vehicle parking.
- dimension and layout of existing and proposed parking areas, entrances and exits abutting roadways.
- vehicular and pedestrian circulation on the site.

For site plans submitted for private residential developments, a hand drawn site plan would be satisfactory provided it is clear, easy to read and contains all of the above-noted information.

For commercial or industrial developments, site plans must be drawn by an architect or certified engineer/surveyor.

You may use the reverse side to draw your site plan or submit it on a separate sheet of paper.
